

For Immediate Release
June 19, 2007

The Textile Center Joan Mondale Gallery Presents:

Nothing New
Fiber Art from Recycled Materials

Minneapolis Recycle – def. To recondition or adapt to a new use or function:

Nothing New is a biennial juried show featuring the innovative creations of 35 national fiber artists who have taken the recycling process to a higher level: a bust made of bottle caps, vases made of newspaper, abstract sculptures made of... They have pushed out the boundaries of re-creation using found objects of everyday life and transforming them into incredible works of fiber art.

WHAT:
Nothing New
Fiber Art from Recycled Materials

WHERE:
Textile Center
Joan Mondale Gallery
3000 University Ave.
Minneapolis, MN 55414

WHEN:
June 22 – August 4, 2007
Opening Reception: Friday, June 22, 2007 6-8 pm
Free and Open to the Public

CONTACT:
Lauren Schad
Textile Center
(612) 436-0464
Lschad@textilecentermn.org

The Textile Center is a national center for fiber art whose primary constituencies are fiber artists, textile arts guilds and fiber arts enthusiasts. Its mission is to honor textile traditions and promote excellence and innovation in fiber art. Membership has grown to 800 individuals and 39 textile guilds, representing a collective membership of more than 7,000. Over 50,000 people a year are served by the Textile Center. The Textile Center is located at 3000 University Avenue SE, Minneapolis, MN 55414 and can be reached by calling 612-436-0464 or visiting the website at www.textilecentermn.org <<http://www.textilecentermn.org/>> .